

Community-Based Water Resources Conservation And Sustainable Forest Management (COSFOM)

COSFOM helps to restore forest and water resources for communities to be prepared for the impact of climate change

Water Resource Conservation Committees guide implementation in the village

Water conservation through springshed revival, river conservation, rainwater harvest

Forest Protection and rehabilitation through community nurseries and reforestation

Livelihood Improvement through community infrastructure and Self Help Groups

